REVOLT IN COLOMBIA

ATTEMPT TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT REYES FRUSTRATED.

PROMINENT MEN ARRESTED

er sent up for manslaughter, held out when the prisoners went to supper and the five guards were sent in search of him. Stiles was found in one of the shops. Seeing only Moorhead, Stiles rushed upon him and felled him with an iron bar. The other guards at once opened fire on Stiles and seeing resistance was futile, he surrendered. He was not hit by any of the bullets. Guard Moorhead's skull was fractured and the doctors say his recovery is impossible.

COLONEL JOHNSON DEAD.

Prominent Minnesota Politician Passes Away.

Minneapolis, Dec. 22.—Colonel C. W. Johnson, prominent for many years in Minnesota state and also national politics, died here during the evening aged sixty-five years. Not since the fatal stroke of paralysis came had the county treasurer of Hennepin county been conscious. Mr. Johnson was for fifteen years a partner in a prominent local banking firm and he had held public office as city clerk, county treasurer, chief clerk of the United States senate, which position he held for twelve years, secretary of the Minnesota state senate, secretary of the Hennepin County Republican central committee and state census enumerator during the national census of 1890 and 1895.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE.

Severe Storm Sweeps Up the Atlantic Coast.

Philadelphia, Dec. 22.—Reports from the Delaware Breakwater and from other points between this port and the sea show that little damage was done to shipping by the severe wind and rain storm which swept up the coast. In anticipation of bad weather a large fleet of vessels arrived at the breakwater during the day and anchored in the harbor and of the fleet only three had serious trouble in weathering the storm. These were the steam pilot boat Philadelphia, the schooner Viking from Fernandina for New York, and the British bark Annasona, from Dunkirk for Philadelphia. The Philadelphia and the Viking were in collision off the Overfalls lightship. The Philadelphia's mast, smokestack and pilot-house were carried away and other damage was done about the deck. The schooner sustained little damage. The pilot boat arrived here at night under its own steam, while the Viking is anchored at the Overfalls lightship.

The bark Annasona was an anchor behind the breakwater when the storm broke. The bark dragged her anchors and was driven broadside on the stones of the breakwater. She was rescued by a tug and was little damaged.

BURNED TO WATER'S EDGE.

Barge Baker Destroyed by Fire at Atlantic City, N. J.

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 22.—The barge Baker, bound from New York for Philadelphia in tow, was burned to the water's edge here during the day.

It is presumed the crew was taken off by the tug Sea King, which was towing the Baker. The Abscon lifesaving crew went out to the burning barge, but could do nothing to save the vessel. Nothing was seen of the Sea King nor the barge Reading which the Sea King also had in tow.

There was no one on board the Baker and there was no cargo. There were appearances, however, that the vessel had recently carried a cargo of coal.

The burned barge was owned by the Powelton Barge company of New York.

NOTED LAWYER IS DEAD.

Quincy, Ill., Dec. 22.—Hope S. Davis died during the day, aged seventy-eight years. He was a member of the general assembly of Illinois in 1876.

Had practiced law for fifty years, being at times associated with Stephen A. Douglas and Abraham Lincoln.

MCCURDY'S TRANSFER PROPERTY.

Morristown, N. J., Dec. 22.—Deeds by which Richard A. McCurdy, former president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, and other members of his family gave transferred valuable property in this city to Mrs. R. A. McCurdy, within the past few days, were made public during the day.

Talk it Over with Your Wife.

Would it not be better for all concerned to take advantage of Hoffman's closing out sale of stoves, than to spend all your Xmas money on trifles; Toys and nicknacks are all right to a certain extent, but will not be fully appreciated in a poorly heated home. I realize that the reading public have been bored to death with the so called cut price and closing out sales, but please do not class them all alike, for you well know that some of them have offered genuine bargains, and this sale is one of the latter kind. Now I cannot convince you of the genuineness of this offer unless you will investigate it for yourselves; but I will do this: I will make you a present of one of my best heaters if any employee of our store charges you more than the ACTUAL COST TO US of any HEATING STOVE, and besides this we are offering a number of them for LESS THAN COST. Our object is not to carry them over next season. We are not having this sale in order to raise a certain amount of cash, for we will sell you stoves on payment. Here is a sample of cut prices. There is no profit in this sale to us, therefore we cannot devote space to give you prices on all our stoves.

It has always been the desire of Jewish fathers, however rich, to have learned sons-in-law, however poor. I do not find this custom prevalent today.

To illustrate why there are no good Jews in fiction Mr. Zangwill related the story of the lion and the cub. The cub had seen a painting of Samson vanquishing the lion, and said to its parent: "I have seen many contests between lions and men, and always the men have been the victors. Why are there no pictures showing lions overpowering men?" "It is because we lions have no painters," was the parent's reply.

The Jews have been scattered to the four winds among all the nations of the earth. They have been of immense service to every country that has harbored them. It reminds me of the story of the crocodile which opened its mouth so that a bird might go into it and eat the leeches which annoyed it. There was mutual benefit from the operation.

It is not strange that sometimes the Jews find the crocodile's mouth closing upon them. It was natural that Jews should congregate around their synagogues. They became to some extent isolated from the people among whom they dwelt. This isolation brought with it suspicion and suspicion caused more isolation for mutual protection.

In mediaeval times the nations of Europe had a conception of the Jewish character compared to which Shakespeare's Shylock was a saint. It was this that brought about the compulsory ghetto.

There are two general types of Jews, the German and the Spanish. The Spanish Jews speak a mixture of Hebrew and Spanish. The German Jews speak Yiddish, a mongrel of bad German and every other language in the world.

The Jews financed the crusades voluntarily and involuntarily. There was nothing they had not financed, not even their own persecutions.—New York Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are receiving congratulations on the advent of this young man to their home.

ZANGWILL EPIGRAMS

CLEVER THINGS THE WITTY AUTHOR SAID ABOUT THE JEWS.

The Way He Compared His Coreligionists to United States Bonds—His Illustration of Some of the Striking Hebrew Characteristics.

Some years since Israel Zangwill when on a visit to this country delivered an address in New York city to his own people. A few of the epigrams which he then coined concerning the characteristics of the Hebrews are here offered:

The Jews had no country of their own. They could not possess the land of their fathers in reality. So they made a portable Palestine. They carried it wherever they went. This was a spiritual country. It could not be assailed by their oppressors.

There have been two conceptions of the Jew—one that he lends money and wants it back again, the other that he deals in old clothes. The truth is Jews have been everywhere. They have been everything except pope of Rome, and they have come near to that. If they dealt in old clothes it was because papal decrees forbade them trading in anything else but old clothes and old iron.

Jews in a way were as good as United States bonds, only United States bonds may be converted, but when a Jew was converted he lost his value.

Because Shylock was rich and Jessica beautiful all Jews are rich and all Jewesses are beautiful. I wish it were so.

A good looking Jew was considered the foot of the family, which is consolation for some of us.

The black plague swept over Europe. The Jews escaped by reason of their different hygienic laws. The Christians charged them with poisoning the wells, and thousands of Jews were put to death for not dying of the plague.

Colonel Roosevelt told me that the Jews of his regiment were among his bravest soldiers, and when Hobson had to be kissed it took a Jewess to do it.

Jews not only furnished money for Columbus' expedition, but his first leutenant was a Jew. This officer discovered tobacco, which is greater than America.

Carlyle said the Jews had no humor, but Carlyle was a Scotchman.

A beggar stole a spoon from a wealthier member of his race who had entertained him. If I had not taken it I would have broken the tenth, which says, 'Thou shalt not covet.' I saw I had to break one commandment anyhow, so I thought I might as well have the spoon."

It has always been the desire of Jewish fathers, however rich, to have learned sons-in-law, however poor. I do not find this custom prevalent today.

ROOSEVELT IN FIGHT

THE PRESIDENT TAKES A HAND
IN NEW YORK STATE POLIT-ICAL CONTEST.

SUPPORTS MR. WADSWORTH

FAVORS HIGGINS' CANDIDATE FOR THE SPEAKERSHIP OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY.

Washington, Dec. 22.—President Roosevelt read ex-Governor Odell's defi during the afternoon and refused to comment on it. He sent out word that he had nothing to say. There is no doubt that the president is heartily with the movement to make James W.
Wadsworth, Jr., speaker of the New York state assembly. He has had several conferences with New York Republican leaders and has told them all that the proper thing to do was to select some man like Wadsworth for the speakership. He named Wadsworth to one or two, but has refrained from saying anything publicly.

The president is anxious to rid the party of Odell and of all the Odell influences. He is also ready to become the leader of the party in New York and is working to that end. He has secured pledges from many leading Republicans and will be behind Governor Higgins in every movement he makes.

ACCUSES THE PRESIDENT.

Ex-Governor Odell Says He Would Wreck Republican Party.

New York, Dec. 22.—Interest in the contest for the speakership of the New York assembly is largely centered upon the interview given out by Ex-Governor Odell, Republican state chairman, in which he accused President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins of a deliberate attempt to wreck the Republican party of this state in order to further their personal ambitions.

Assemblyman Wadsworth said:

"I believe Governor Higgins' statement that President Roosevelt did not dictate my candidacy, and I think Governor Higgins is abundantly able to take care of himself."

Mr. Wadsworth said he would not at tend the conference of Republican as-semblymen called to meet in this city
during the day, although he had received an invitation.

Mr. Wadsworth said that he recognized the conference originated with his opponents, and added:

"I was never more confident than am this minute that I will be elected I have received assurances that make it absolutely certain."

Assemblyman E. A. Merritt, Jr., candidate for speaker of the assembly, is sued a statement at night criticizing the manner in which Mr. Wadsworth was put forth for the speakership.

In the course of an interview at night Mr. Odell asserted that it was President Roosevelt who persuaded him to come out for Ex-Governor Frank S. Black for United States senator to succeed Chauncey M. Depew and that it was the use of the president's influence against Black subsequently which led to Mr. Black's defeat.

HERBERT PARSONS CHOSEN.

Anti-Odell Candidate for President
County Committee Elected.

New York, Dec. 22.—The Republican county committee of New York which met in Murray Hill Lyceum to take up the matter of selecting a president of the committee, remained in session until an early hour in the morning. Shortly before midnight a recess was voted, the committee being called to order again at 12:30 o'clock
State Senator Nathaniel A. Elsberg acted as temporary chairman.

It was known at the outset of the meeting, which was called to order shortly after 9 o'clock, that the two opposing forces in the Republican party in New York state, which are engaged in a preliminary battle as to the speakership of the assembly, would again lock horns over the control of the New York county committee.

The so-called anti-Odell forces, led by Congressman Herbert Parsons as candidate for president of the committee, soon began their efforts to have the president named at this time. The opposing forces fought for a postponement of election of officers until Jan-4, and on the first test vote were defeated.

At 2:35 o'clock a. m. Congressman Herbert Parsons was elected chairman of the New York county Republican committee. The vote was ayes 322, noes 288.

Following the election, which was received with wild enthusiasm, Mr.
Hulph, the Odell candidate, made a speech in which he pledged his cordial support to Mr. Parsons.

Snow Delays Traffic.

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 22.—With 5.6
inches of snow on the ground and still falling Southern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin are experiencing wintry weather. The temperature is slightly below freezing point and the heavy fall of snow is delaying all traffic.

Two Men Burned to Death.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Dec. 22.—W. M.
Davis, aged forty-five, and his brother
Jefferson, aged twenty, sons of George Davis, were burned to death in a fire which completely destroyed the home of their father at Johnstown.

HENDRICKS TESTIFIES

NEW YORK STATE SUPERINTEND-ENT OF INSURANCE ON THE WITNESS STAND.

New York, Dec. 22.—Francis Hendricks, superintendent of insurance of New York state, was the chief witness before the legislative committee of insurance investigation during the day and testified that the examinations of insurance companies by his department are made to ascertain only the solvency of the companies and that no investigation is made into the extra-gance of the management of a company, or into the salaries paid to officers, so long as the company is able to pay its obligations. No investigation is made into the commissions paid to agents, the systems of loaning on the premiums, the advancing of loans to agents, or loans to directors. The employment of kinspeople of officers in high positions is not inquired into.
This has long been the custom of the department, Mr. Hendricks said, and he declared further that he personally knew little or nothing about the various examinations made, as they were entrusted to Isaac Vanderpool, the chief examiner of the department.

While Mr. Hendricks' memory failed him as to any legislation which he had suggested as a remedy to any defects
in the laws governing insurance companies, he stated that no measure that he had ever presented had ever been opposed in either house of the legislature. Neither had any bills been passed against his recommendation.

Mr. Hendricks said that his department spent last year about $137,000
and received in fees and payments $287,726, which was paid into the state treasury. To make examinations that would bring out such information as has been gathered by the legislative committee, the witness said, would require more examiners and an additional appropriation of from $50,000 to $60,000. He thought, however, he could get the appropriation if he asked for it.

Knew Nothing of Legal Expenses.

Mr. Hendricks knew nothing of the large legal expenses of the New York Life Insurance company, the Equitable and the Mutual Life, as they had never been called to his attention. He had never heard of the wash sales of securities, nor of the year-end loans of the Equitable to clerks of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., nor had these ever been brought to his attention.

Isaac Vanderpool, chief examiner of the insurance department, followed Mr. Hendricks and detailed what was done at an examination. He said that practically it was a comparison of the company's sworn report with the books. He had never known of wash sales nor of the year-end loans; he had never known the salary of President McCurdy of the Mutual, nor had he ever inquired what it was. The salaries are in one lump sum in the salary account and he had never taken steps to find out if these moneys had been paid for that purpose. The large expenditures in the supply department had never excited his curiosity although the vouchers had been looked at at random. These were stamped with the approval of the expenditure committee and he had never questioned their legitimacy of purpose.
The vouchers for the $25,000 payments to the chairman of the expenditure committee, he had seen, but never inquired into. Mr. Vanderpool said all examinations were conducted in this manner, that he never tried to go back of a voucher or book entry. This was a custom which had prevailed ever since he had been in the department.

HANDEL'S OBSTINACY.

An Incident of the Great Musician's Childhood Days.

A child's obstinacy does not always bring as fortunate results as was the case with Handel, the great musician.
His extraordinary resoluteness as a boy doubtless led to that great success which crowned the later years of his life. When he was some seven years of age his father had occasion to visit a son by a former wife, who was valet
to the Duke of Saxe Weissenfels.
Traveling in those days—200 years ago
—was tedious and expensive, and Dr.
Handel did not desire to be delayed with the care of an "infant" during a journey which the demands of a responsible profession would probably make as short as possible.

But the future giant of music would go. He cried, bellowed and eventually ran along the road after the vehicle,
until the tender feelings of the doctor could refuse no longer. In an evil moment for his jurisprudence scheme he took the child with him.

No sooner did the little fellow reach the ducal residence than he gave rein to his fancy on the keys of every instrument that he found open. The remarkable music that came from the finger tips of the child's hands was soon the object of wonder and conversation throughout the palace, and all this was intensified when he secured an opportunity of touching the keys of the chancel organ within the hearing of the duke.

Such a throb started from that chapel organ when little Handel's tender-fingers chose the keys, and the soul of the duke was touched as it never had been touched before—truly a momentous occurrence, since but for it Handel's sacred music might never have been written.

The duke's attention having been arrested, he inquired of Dr. Handel concerning the child's future, and eventually succeeded in placing him for three years' study under Zachau, the organist of Halle cathedral. This was the beginnings of Handel's musical education.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS MADE

LEADERS OF WORKMEN IN ST.
PETERSBURG PLACED IN ST.
PETER FORTRESS.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 22.—Since noon the streets have been filled with troops, especially those in the industrial sections. The railroad stations are in possession of the military.

Wholesale arrests of the leaders of the workmen were made at night. It was reported that the police include in their captures the members of the second workmen's council who were placed in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul with the members of the first council who were arrested Saturday night. A third council, however, promptly took the place of the second.

The League of Leagues has issued an appeal to the public asking for liberal support of the proletariat, "which is bearing the brunt of the struggle for the emancipation of the nation." The appeal says there is bound to be much privation, starvation and even death and not only asks for material aid but proposes the inauguration of free diningrooms for workmen in all parts of the city.

According to the latest information the Lithuanian insurrection has extended into the province of Vitebsk, across the border of Livonia. At Kokunusen the chief of police and his assistants were tried by a revolutionary tribunal and executed.

It turns out that Tukum in Courland only surrendered after a severe fight which lasted for twelve hours. The insurrectionists had fortified the town by throwing up intrenchments before which they dug pits. They also had in position the machine guns recently captured by them. The trenches were taken by storm, both sides losing heavily.

The latest information from Kharhoff says that about 10,000 revolutionaries are under arms and troops are being concentrated for the purpose of recapturing the city.

The strike started here at noon very tamely. In the center of the city the shops were not closed, the proprietors having received guarantees that if they remained open they would be granted ample protection.

The main interest in the strike of the railway men centered in the Warsaw station, where the government was to make a test of its ability by moving a train for Berlin. The depot was packed with troops. Promptly at noon the railroad men walked out of the yards in a body. The authorities, however, were prepared and soon sent out a train guarded by soldiers.

OPPOSED BY THE Czar

RUSSIAN RULER REFUSES TO GRANT SYSTEM OF UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

London, Dec. 22.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at St. Petersburg says that a majority of those present at a council held at Tsarskoe Selo voted for the granting of a system of universal suffrage. The emperor, however, after listening to all the arguments, deliberately and decisively refused to abide by the decision of the majority and declared against universal suffrage.

PEASANTS FIRE UPON SOLDIERS.

Forty of the latter either killed or wounded.

Riga, Livonia, Dec. 22.—Refugee land owners are arriving here. It is reported that there was bloodshed at Talsen yesterday. Revolutionary peasants entrenched themselves in their houses, from the windows of which they fired on the patrolling soldiers. It is estimated that forty infantrymen and cavalrymen were killed or wounded.

Additional details of the revolt at Tukum, Courland, have been received. The revolt began Dec. 12, when the revolutionary municipality requested Captain von Mueller, who was stationed there with fifty infantry and forty dragoons, to withdraw the military patrols from the streets because the inhabitants wished to establish a civilian guard. The captain agreed to this, but forgot to inform his soldiers, who, upon resuming guard duty, were encountered by armed agitators. The leader of the latter shouted that they had received Von Mueller's permission to carry arms, but the soldiers fired on the agitators and a fight ensued in which fifteen persons were killed.

On Dec. 14 the soldiers buried their comrades, but the people fired on the funeral procession from the windows of their houses.

More dragoons arrived and another fight occurred. The soldiers were compelled to retire with ten wounded, leaving Tukum in the hands of 3,000 armed revolutionaries. The same evening a disguised dragoon succeeded in bringing a report of the affair to the governor general, who was asked to send reinforcements.

Meanwhile the revolutionaries had barred the streets with entanglements.

Next morning the revolutionaries set fire to the building in which the officers and forty dragoons were housed. The officers and men tried to escape but were prevented by the entanglements and were fired on by the revolutionaries from the windows of houses, resulting in the killing of Captain von Mueller and 24 dragoons and the wounding of an officer and 13 privates. Only three escaped. The revolutionaries then frightfully mutilated the bodies of the dead soldiers.

Next day five companies of reinforcements with three guns arrived, but the revolutionaries compelled them to retire by a fusillade from the windows.

General Chorounchenko then ordered the artillery to bombard the town. Many of the inhabitants who had not learned of the arrival of reinforcements thought that terrorists were throwing bombs and they fled in panic in all directions. The troops surrounding the town fired on the people, killing, according to refugees, 400 of them. The bloodshed lasted from 8 o'clock in the evening until 9 o'clock in the morning, when the townsmen surrendered. Two-thirds of the inhabitants fled the town.

Similar occurrences are reported from Goldingen and Talsen, to which places reinforcements have been sent. No details of these disturbances are yet available.

Meanwhile peasants continue to devastate the estates of the Baltic nobility and a total of fifty estates are reported to have been burned down.

SEIZED BY INSURGENTS.

Several Cities in Courland in the Hands of the Rebels.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 22.—A rumor is in circulation here that the insurgents in Courland have seized Windau, Friedrichtstadt, Pratzenburg, Holdingen and other places, and that a popular tribunal at Kopenhousak has executed several officials.

The single telephone wire working to Moscow during the afternoon brought grave reports of serious disorders and collisions between the troops and the populace.

The secretly published newspapers which are being distributed by thousands to the workmen, are filled with the most inflammatory appeals, inciting the people to an armed rebellion. Many of the articles are especially directed to the army, which is implored not to shed blood of the nation.

It is significant that the workmen in the mills and factories have for more than a week been presenting demands that the priests discontinue the usual prayers for the emperor with the alternative of being boycotted if they do not cease so doing.

Wounded Soldiers at Mitau.

Mitau, Courland, Dec. 22.—Five cars of wounded soldiers have arrived here. Some of the dragoons who escaped report that they encountered on their way here a band of revolutionaries and in the fight that ensued seven of the latter were killed and eight wounded.

Fifty Thousand Men Idle.

Moscow, Dec. 22.—The town is in darkness and the theaters and clubs are closed. The employees of the municipality have abandoned their work. Fifty thousand factory hands are idle.

HOUSE ORATORY EXHAUSTED.

Two Scheduled Speeches Are Ordered Printed in the Record.

Washington, Dec. 22.—There was but a ten minute session of the house during the day when the holiday adjournment until Jan. 4 was taken. Two speeches, one attacking and the other defending the cotton crop estimates of the government, were to have been made, but permission was granted to print these speeches in the record. Mr Payne announced:

"Our oratory seems to have been exhausted," and without extending further invitation to any member for a speech the adjournment was declared by the speaker.

AS A SENATOR FROM OREGON

Mr. Gearin Sworn in to Succeed Mr. Mitchell.

Washington, Dec. 22.—After a session of little more than an hour's duration, the senate adjourned until Jan. 4. Only about half of the session was legislative in character and the greater part of that time was devoted to discussion of the regularity of the credentials of Mr. Gearin, who succeeds Mr. Mitchell as a senator from Oregon. The credentials were accepted and Mr. Gearin was sworn in.

IN HOUSE OF CORRECTION.

Former Milwaukee Alderman Sentenced to One Year.

Milwaukee, Dec. 22.—Ex-Alderman Robert L. Rudolph during the afternoon was sentenced to one year in the Milwaukee house of correction, being found guilty of soliciting a bribe of $100 from Ex-City Attorney Charles H. Hamilton in 1901 to secure the passage of an expense bill through the common council. A stay of execution of the sentence was granted pending the supreme court's decision on certain questions involved in the case. Rudolph gave $8,000 bail.

Prisoners Break Jail.

Kearney, Neb., Dec. 22.—Fred M. Gillette, W. B. Warner and Fred Englebrecht, confined in the county jail here, the first two accused of forgery, the third of horsestealing, escaped in the evening during the temporary absence of the sheriff. They overpowered the jailer and took all the firearms in the jail. A posse is in pursuit.

NO BIG REALTY DEALS ARE CLOSED

Mayor Con O'Brien Has Bought The Dodd Place, of Twenty Acres

GOOD PRICE IN BOTH CASES

L. E. Lum Buys Eighty Acres in Section 21, Known as the Widow Anderson Place

Two big realty deals have been placed on record within the past two or three days, presumably emanating from the iron ore business on the Cuyuna range.

Mayor Con O'Brien has bought of William Dodd the Dodd place on Oak street east, near the old Swartz driving park, consisting of twenty acres, well improved. This farm was sold for $4,000 spot cash. Mr. O'Brien intends to keep the place and may ultimately build a home there.

The other place sold was eighty acres in Sec. 21, 45, 30, or the widow Anderson place. This was bought by L. E. Lum and he paid $4,500 spot cash for the tract. Both of these properties are within the Cuyuna range belt and they may develop into very valuable parcels of land.

FEW CHANGES ON N. P.

Charles L. Townsend Appointed District Passenger Agent With Headquarters In St. Paul

Charles L. Townsend has been appointed district passenger agent of the Northern Pacific road with headquarters in St. Paul. He today succeeded H. W. Sweet, who, as lately rumored, has resigned to enter other business.

Mr. Townsend has been chief rate clerk in the general passenger department of the Northern Pacific.

F. C. Huntington, chief clerk in the office of General Superintendent Gilbert, of the Northern Pacific road, will become chief clerk to General Manager H. J. Horn, succeeding F. N. Finch, made superintendent of the Montana division.

Mr. Huntington's place will be taken by W. D. F. Hyde, who has been chief clerk in the office of the division superintendent at Seattle.

The changes will be made Jan. 1.

The position of assistant general superintendent will be revived by the Northern Pacific road Jan. 1, when D. Boyle will take the title. His jurisdiction will be the Yellowstone, the Montana and the Rocky Mountain division.

Mr. Boyle has been superintendent of the Montana division, in which office his successor will be F. N. Finch.

The assistant general superintendence was created three years. Its incumbents were, in turn, H. J. Horn, now general manager; F. W. Gilbert, now general superintendent, and E. J. Pearson, recently chief engineer. After Mr. Pearson's transfer to the engineering department the post of assistant general superintendent was abolished.

Mr. Boyle has served the Northern Pacific sixteen years, and has been, in succession, roadmaster, trainmaster, assistant division superintendent and division superintendent.

Mr. Finch has been an employee of the mechanical department, chief clerk to the superintendent of motive power, and chief clerk to the general manager.—St. Paul Dispatch.

F. E. OBERG WINS HIS SUIT

Jury Returns Verdict in His Case For the Full Amount Asked

In Complaint

Yesterday was taken up with the trial in the case of F. E. Oberg vs Kristina Ekman, it going to the jury late yesterday afternoon. The jury was out but a short time when it returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the sum asked in the complaint. The suit was brought to collect the amount of commission claimed to be due in the sale of a piece of land near Deerwood.

The case of J. M. Hayes vs E. J. Rhone was continued and will be taken up on eight days notice.

The next case taken up was that of Henry Hurley vs R. D. King. Mr. Hurley brings suit to recover wages claimed to be due his son while he was working for Mr. King. The case went to the jury this morning.

After the case went to the jury the court dismissed the petit jury and adjourned court until next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

JOSEPH SCHRYVER

More Details of the Death of a Former Well Known Brainerd Citizen, but of Late of Glendive

The following regarding the death and life of Joseph Schryver, a former resident of this city, is taken from the Woodstock, Ill., Sentinel:

Joseph Schryver, a brother of Mrs. Amy Brink of this city, and a former resident of Dorr township, passed away from this life at his home in Glendive, Montana, Friday, Nov. 17. Mr. Schryver's health had been very poor since his wife's death last January, being troubled with heart disease which was the cause of his death.

The funeral services were held the following Monday in the Methodist Episcopal church in that city, and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends. The floral offerings contributed by the employees of the Northern Pacific railroad and ladies of the Maccabees were magnificent. At the cemetery three volleys were fired over his grave by Company I. of the state militia, and the bugler sounded taps.

The deceased was born in Greensborough, N. Y., in 1832. At the age of 11 years he removed with his parents to Illinois and settled on a farm near Ridgefield in McHenry county. In 1854 he was married to Miss Emily Blakesley, and four years afterwards they removed to Iowa where they lived until 1860 when they again moved to Brainerd, Minn. In the spring of 1862 Mr. Schryver enlisted in Company D, Brackett battalion, and when his term expired he enlisted in Company C, Minnesota volunteers, and served with distinction during the rest of the war.

For twenty-eight years they lived in Minnesota, removing to Glendive, Montana, in 1888. Mr. Schryver was an employee of the Northern Pacific for twenty-six years, and enjoyed to an unusual degree the confidence of his employers. The children now living are Mrs. M. S. Young and F. J. Schryver of Glendive, Montana; L. M. Schryver of the Indian Territory; Mrs. T. W. Crawford, of Moline, Ill.; Mrs. Clara Barton, of Omaha, Neb., and Joseph Schryver of Colorado.

SITUATION IS QUIET.

Large Force of Sailors and Marines on Duty at Shanghai.

Washington, Dec. 22.—The state department has a cablegram from Shanghai reporting that the situation there is normal; that 1,500 sailors, marines and volunteers are guarding the streets, the viceroy has returned and the mixed court probably will reopen on Saturday.

Shanghai, Dec. 22.—Order has been restored. The viceroy has settled the mixed court dispute and the harbor will reopen at once. American, British, German, Italian and Japanese sailors are guarding the foreign concession and mounted volunteers are patrolling roads outside the city. An attack on the waterworks was easily repulsed.

HUGH WATT CONVICTED.

Former Member of Parliament Goes to Penitentiary.

London, Dec. 22.—The trial of Hugh Watt, the former member of parliament charged with inciting hired agents to murder his divorced wife, Julia Watt, and Sir Reginald Beauchamp, ended with a verdict of guilty. Watt was sentenced to five years penitentiary.

The judge in summing up said it was the most extraordinary case of modern times. Improbable as was the whole story he thought it was equally improbable that any one could concoct and swear to such charges. The question of the sanity of Watt had not been raised so the jury had nothing to do but find a verdict of guilty or not guilty.

The judge pointed out that the death of the former Mrs. Watt would place Watt in exactly the position he desired, as it would enable him to legalize his marriage to Lady Violet Beauchamp, which present was illegal because Mrs. Watt had declined to have her divorce made absolute. Her death would also annul the deed of settlement between Watt and Mrs. Watt, which Watt desired.

AID RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONISTS.

Appeal Issued to the Socialists of the World.

Brussels, Dec. 22.—The international socialist bureau has issued a manifesto to the socialists of the world as follows:

The revolution in Russia advances from aspiration to realization. In this struggle the Russian proletariat should have the moral and material assistance of our brothers throughout the world. Our comrades in the United States request the international bureau to invite the affiliated organizations to solemnly commemorate Jan. 22. The workers of the world will recall the struggle which the Russian proletariat was then carrying on and therefore the order is hereby given that all affiliated groups organize meetings and collections for Jan. 22 next or the night of the Sunday preceding.

Let the orators refer to the heroic efforts of our Russian brothers and let the collections from all countries aid those who are battling against imperialism and for liberty.

WATSON'S BURLESQUERS.

W. B. The Yamamoto Brothers, Japanese Equilibrists, Swan and Bambard, Comiques Eccentric Harry Montague, the well known author, the curtain raiser is described as a very successful laugh producer, and is built on the lines that made the late Chas. Hoyt's farces so popular. In the cast are five comedians, the soubrette, the comedy old man and woman, and the usual chorus who fit in and out without much regard to the plot, but to the enhancement of the occasion. Every style of entertainment known to the burlesque world, is presented, and the program that will be presented will be diversified enough to please the most fastidious.

LINCOLN THE ATHLETE.

ALL BIDS REJECTED.

Those for Contracts in the Philippines

Not Acceptable.

Washington, Dec. 22.—All the bids for concessionary contracts or grants for the construction of railways in the Philippine Islands recently submitted to the bureau of insular affairs were rejected during the day because of departures from the terms of the circular calling for proposals.

Secretary Taft after a number of conferences with Governor Wright and Mr. Forbes of the Philippine commission and Colonel Edwards, chief of the insular bureau, during the day decided to readvertise for proposals as Jan. 20 at 10 a. m., has been fixed as the date for the opening of new bids for these concessions. The terms will be modified in some particulars. Where bidders propose to construct the road without guarantee they will be limited in their bids only by the terms of the Philippine government railroad acts of 1902 and 1903. But where the bidders wish to take advantage of a guarantee of certain interest on their investment they can vary from the original invitation to bid only in point of time or in the cost of construction per mile as affected by contractor's profits. As to the latter the Philippine government reserves the right to fix the maximum cost of the road. The time in which the road can be completed and the contractors' profits will be important considerations in making the awards.

New circulars will be prepared at once for the guidance of those who may wish to enter the competition for the railroad concessions in the Philippines.

EIGHT FEET OF HONEY.

Big slab of Sweet Stuff Taken From Side of House.

A slab of honey eight feet in length, eighteen inches in width and four inches thick, weighing 101 pounds, was recently taken from the side of a house in Sandy Plains, N. Y., occupied by Cassius Simpkins, says a special dispatch from Catskill, N. Y., to the New York World.

David V. Smith of Coxsackie, father-in-law of Simpkins, drove over to the Simpkins farm the other day and confided to the son-in-law that he had dreamed of a honey tree on the place.

"A honey tree?" queried Simpkins. "Nothing of the kind, but I have seen bees busy about this house all fall."

Whereupon a search was made and the honey located.

Immortal.

Aunt Hepsy was in ecstasies over the young boy her nephew, Ike, was going to marry. "I never saw her till last week," she said, "but I fell in love with her at first sight myself. She's good, sweet, amiable and as pretty as a picture."

"What's her name?" asked the listeners.

"Maria."

"Maria what?"

Aunt Hepsy wrinkled her forehead, pursed up her lips, looked at the ceiling and gave it up.

"I declare, I can't think of her other name."

The general laugh that followed this confession netted Aunt Hepsy.

"What's the difference about her last name anyway?" she said explosively. "It's only temporary. She's going to change it!"—Youth's Companion.
